

president's message

Once again we had a great spot to display our opportunity quilt and set up the boutique for the First Friday's on Fourth event. Our sales however did not reflect the time and effort that was spent setting up. Fortunately, we did manage to pay for our space and still take in a small profit. There were not too many people on the street, which was surprising because it was a beautiful summer evening, and it was Friday. I wonder if maybe it was the holiday weekend or the economy that kept people at home. We did have a few guild members stop by and visit our booth, which was really nice.

The quilt show in Windsor started out a little chilly and damp, but as the afternoon warmed up more people came out to shop and stroll along the quilt lined corridor. It was nice to see so many guild members out and about and we also had a few inquiries from others about joining our guild. As usual, there were many positive comments about our opportunity quilt and several people came by to look at it because they had seen it from afar and had to get closer a look, or they had heard about it from someone else.

I don't know if any one noticed my new tennis shoes last meeting, but I'm breaking in a new pair in anticipation of Relay for Life in Windsor on the 25th. This will be my 3rd year walking and being a team member on Betty Upchurch and Nicole Cowlin's team, "BeUp with the Material Girl." It is an amazing sight to see the luminarias all lit up in the evening, I hope you can come out and watch.

I hope you all had a fun and safe Fourth of July, see you at the Fair!

programs & workshops

PROGRAM JULY 16, 2009 ~ NANCY PINKSTON

"SQUARE IN A SQUARE QUILTING METHOD"

WORKSHOP JULY 17, 2009 ~ "SQUARE IN A SQUARE TECHNIQUE"

Christmas Ideas Begin Now!

July's workshop with Nancy Pinkston, will be demonstrating the Square in the Square Quilting System. She will be teaching participants how to make triangles with perfect points without ever cutting a square. The project will include making a table runner. Just think you could make a class project that you can give as a Christmas gift. You can make several seasonal table runners or add to the one gift by adding matching napkins or a candle holder with a candle or a small vase with flowers or a small picture frame with a picture of the recipient's grandchild(ren) just to name a few ideas!

The workshop for August is with Cindy Needham who will be teaching what to do with "those" linens; even those with stains and worn spots! You know which ones to which I am referring! Those are the tablecloths, doilies, pillowcases that have taken space but you haven't used yet you've always wanted to do something with them! Once again, this opportunity allows you to learn a new technique with items you already have and can present as family Christmas gifts. "This lovely quilt is Mom's table cloth that she used every Thanksgiving."

There is still room in both of these workshops. The cost for members is $35 per person. This is quite a deal considering the cost of Cindy's workshop at Asilomar for one week is $1299!

Contact Janice Rodgers or Genie Becker for more information regarding either workshop.

coming in august

Santa Rosa Quilt Guild is fortunate to have Cindy Needham as our presenter in August. Cindy has been a quilter for over 35 years and has taught for the past 10 years. Working with vintage linens has become her passion and is the topic for her book Wholecloth Linen Quilts. Cindy also serves as a national educator for Superior Threads, and has been the featured artist at Road to California as well as a guest on Ricky Tims and Alex Anderson's "The Quilt Show."

The lecture is entitled "Thread Facts and Fiction," will address the use of difficult threads, tension issues, needles and more.

The workshop, "Vintage Linen Wholecloth Quilts" will address using a piece of vintage linen to make a one-of-a-kind whole cloth quilt. Cindy will share her extensive stencil stash with attendees, who will become members of the "Linen Ladies Club."

A final note, Cindy Needham, will be presenting in the first session at Empty Spools Seminars 2010 at Asilomar. Cost for the week is $1199, but you can learn a lot from her at our workshop which is offered for only $35!

community quilts

This is July 4th and we are half way through the year. Where has the time gone? We all have been very busy working on quilts. Thank you so much and a special thank you to Karen Boscolo for sandwiching all the quilts and finishing many of them and also to Pam Beebe for all the cutting of squares and borders. She has also been making and finishing a lot of quilts. Also many thanks to Cathy Hansen for cutting strips and borders and making quilts. So far we have delivered 816 quilts and 347 hats. Dolly Haines is a prolific hat maker and several other guild members also work on the hats. Sue Haley and Marilyn Swanson have been making little socks and Jan Andrews' mother-in-law has made little booties and the nurses and parents are really crazy about them. I was told their little feet get cold so this is very nice. July 30th will be the 5th Thursday at Luther Burbank Center and we will have several things happening. Karen Boscolo will be there with quilts to work on, Pam Beebe will assist and also have several demonstrations on how to do a baby quilt top from a kit and Tara Antaree will have her flannel there so you can work with her on putting flannel tops together. I am sure there will be plenty to do and you can help out whenever you can. Karen will open the building around 8:30 and will need some help putting the tables up and then taking them down again when the day is over, and I hope you all have a great time. Work at the 5th Thursday retreats has really helped to get the quilts finished. We got a thank you from one of the parents and they were so impressed with the quilt they received for their baby they donated $100 to our program. A big thank you to them--we can use the money for supplies. What a wonderful start for this year. Thank you to all our members for making this possible. We have come up with a new slogan. We are Keeping Sonoma County Covered. I hope you like it.

community smart card

Thanks to all members who have been using their cards. The first six months of this year we have earned $675 from this fundraiser, which is great. Use your Community Smart Card at local stores, and the store will make a donation. If your card is expiring or you don't have a card I can get one for you. Just email me or let me know at the next SRQG meeting. All you do is show or swipe your Community Smart Card before paying for your purchase. Don't forget to use your Community Smart cards at the following merchants: Andy's Produce Market (Sebastopol, Bangkok Express (Petaluma), E.R. Sawyer Jewelers (Santa Rosa), Friedman's Home Improvement Stores and many more which can be seen on the www.communitysmart.com website. Merchants participating will make a donation in your name to our guild. To see a full list of merchants go to the SRQG website blog or ask your local merchant if they participate. The guild is asking for a $3.75 donation to pay the cost of the card.

pointless sisters

The Pointless Sisters are exhibiting quilts related to water at Sprint Copy Center between August 4 and September 30. The featured quilt is "Along the Russian River", a twenty panel group quilt designed by Linda Morand and quilted by 20 members of the Pointless Sisters. This exhibit is in conjunction with the Russian River Watershed Cleanup, scheduled for September 26-27. You can visit the website at: www.russianrivercleanup.org. There will be a reception at Sprint Copy Center, 175 N. Main, Sebastopol on Wednesday August 12 from 6-7:30 p.m.

The Pointless Sisters art quilt group meets the fourth Tuesday of each month from 10 a.m. to 12 noon at the Luther Burbank Garden Center, 2050 Yulupa Avenue in Santa Rosa. The group shares their work, discusses new trends and art quilt techniques, provides education programs and sponsors challenges. All guild members interested in art quilting are invited to join us at our July 28th meeting. The annual membership fee is $30.

First Friday in July proved to be another disappointment. So that will be the end of that experiment--too much work too little money coming in. A good group showed up for the quilt show in Windsor on Sunday. They were so good I had very little to do, SO.....thank you ladies for making my day so easy.

We did not make a lot of money but we had a good time and got to visit and look at some lovely quilts and see names we had never seen before. It's never a waste of time visiting with friends, making new friends, and talking quilting. Don't forget about the 2nd Thurs. of the month meeting at Quilted Vine to work on boutique items.

The MQSC Show depleted our new thread catchers so we need to make more with animal prints. The Chatelaines have been a big hit so we need to make more of those and then we need to come up with some new ideas. So put on your thinking caps and let's get productive again. Thanks to all of you for your support and helping out.

friendship blocks

Summertime is the perfect time for making new friends and connecting with old ones.

The Friendship Block Program is the perfect way to do just that. It's also perfect for those who love doing small projects and perfecting their various quilting skills.

Last month I introduced two new friendship blocks, Sandy Chan-Brown's Batik Kaleidoscope block and Genie Becker's Grandmother's Fan. I have kits available for Genie's block and a paper piecing patterns for Sandy. Check our website for photos and pick up the instructions from me at the next meeting!

Don't forget our drawing for the "Friendship Picnic Basket" in August. One chance to win per block turned in!

"If friends were flowers, I'd pick you!"

If you require additional instructions, please see me before or after a guild meeting (but, of course, never DURING the meeting as I do not want to miss anything!). sunshine

The Sunshine Committee likes to send encouraging words when one of our members is down-hearted for one reason or another, or just because they are missed while recovering from something or other. Help is needed in knowing who those folks are.

So, please, check your roster for the telephone number or e-mail address for Jenine Giblin, and let her know if you're aware of someone who needs a card, or even a visit. Also, there is now a "Sunshine Box" on the membership table where a note may be left.

petaluma quilt show

The Petaluma Arts Council will present fiber artist Carol Larson on Saturday, August 8, 2009, at 2 pm in the Petaluma Arts Building. Carol will discuss her "Tall Girl Series: A Body of Work." Carol highlights the 40 years since the three surgeries that "broke my body, nearly crushed my spirit, and forever changed my life." At the age of 17, Carol had reached a height of 6'6". With the intention of giving her a "normal life," a doctor surgically shortened her six inches. On Saturday, August 8, 2 p.m., Carol Larson will present a slide show lecture about the quilts she created that reflect the physical pain, the emotional scars, and the spiritual healing that followed the surgery. The Petaluma Arts Building is located at 230 Lakeville Street (at the corner of Washington Blvd.). For more information about Carol Larson, visit her website at www.live2dye.com.

fifth thursday retreat

Thursday, July 30th at 10:30 am at the Luther Burbank Art & Garden Center, Tera Antaree will show all interested how to create baby quilt tops out of flannel scraps. I'll bring all the flannel scraps and teach how to make two styles – "wonky log cabins" and "squares" (depending on the size of the scraps). Bring your sewing machine, good medium- or large-size scissors (I like my Clover serrated edge ones), a 12-1/2" square ruler (if you have one, for log cabins), 6" or 6-1/2" wide ruler (for squares), and any flannel scraps you'd like to find coordinating fabrics for. These cute baby quilts are really fun and fast, require very little preparation or space, and mostly involve sewing (my favorite part)! See you then!

2009 guild challenge

A Question:

If you saw an art quilt with two pears on it what would it be?

- A. A pair of pears
- B. A homonym
- C. The Quilt Challenge
- D. All the above.

If you chose D you would bee right. This year our quilt challenge will be two create a quilt that represents a homonym. Homonyms are words that sound the same but mean two different things, such as pair and pear.

Are there any rules? Only won. You cannot right on yore quilt what the homonym is, the viewer must guess the homonym.

When is it do? It must be completed for the Founders' Day Lunch in September.

So get your thinking cap on, get your dusty dictionary out and your creative mind and fingers going. There will be prizes!!!

(There are no spelling errors in this article just a few wrong homonyms. Did you find them?)
